DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: on page 8, line 2, Fig. 4 should be changed to Fig. 3, for the purpose of consistency between the description and the drawing. Appropriate correction is required.
2. Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities: "resouorces" should be changed to "resources". Appropriate correction is required.
3. Claims 58, 61, 64, 65 are objected to because of the following informalities: "...implement:." should be changed to "...implement:". Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

4. The drawings are objected to because they fail to show necessary textual labels of features or symbols in Fig. 1, 2 as described in the specification. For example, placing a label, "hard disk", with reference 26, 34 would give the viewer necessary detail to fully understand this element at a glance. A descriptive textual label for numbered elements 68, 70, 74, 78, 82 in these figures would be needed to fully and better understand these figures without substantial analysis of the detailed specification. Any structural detail that is of sufficient importance to be described should be shown in the drawing. Optionally, applicant may wish to include a table next to the present figure to fulfill this requirement. See 37 CFR 1.83. 37 CFR 1.84(n)(o) is recited below:

Art Unit: 2177

“(n) Symbols. Graphical drawing symbols may be used for conventional elements when appropriate. The elements for which such symbols and labeled representations are used must be adequately identified in the specification. Known devices should be illustrated by symbols which have a universally recognized conventional meaning and are generally accepted in the art. Other symbols which are not universally recognized may be used, subject to approval by the Office, if they are not likely to be confused with existing conventional symbols, and if they are readily identifiable.

(o) Legends. Suitable descriptive legends may be used, or may be required by the Examiner, where necessary for understanding of the drawing, subject to approval by the Office. They should contain as few words as possible”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless:

(e) the invention was described in

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

36. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

37. Claims 10, 43, 76 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kloba et al. (US Patent No. 6,421,717 B1), as applied to the rejection of claims above, in view of Becker et al. (US Patent No. 5,937,411).

38. As per claims 10, 43, 76, Kloba does not teach “authenticating a manifest file; and including the manifest file in the archive file”. However, Becker teaches this limitation at col. 2, lines 36-53, col. 3, lines 29-38.

Thus, it would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify the teachings of Kloba with the teachings of Becker to include “authenticating a manifest file; and including the manifest file in the archive file” in order to provide a digital signature for verifying the integrity of the archive file.

38. Claims 14,19, 28, 33, 47, 52, 61, 66, 80, 85, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kloba et al. (US Patent No. 6,421,717 B1), as applied to the rejection of claims above, in view of Burner et al. (US Patent No. 6,282,548 B1).

39. As per claims 14, 19, 47, 52, 80, 85, Kloba does not explicitly teach “receiving a value from the client computer; and limiting a number of Web pages in the site map to the value”. However, Burner teaches this limitation at col. 11, lines 18-25.

Thus, it would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify the teachings of Kloba with the teachings of Burner to include “receiving a value from the client computer; and limiting a number of Web pages in the site map to the value” in order to provide a way for users to see a “metaview” of available information and to be able to find the information that addresses their specific needs.

40. As per claims 28, 33, 61, 66, Kloba does not explicitly teach “indicating in the single request the maximum number of Web pages in the site map”. However, Burner teaches this limitation at col. 13, lines 12-20.

Thus, it would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify the teachings of Kloba with the teachings of Burner to include “indicating in the single request the maximum number of Web pages in the site map” in order to limit the number of web pages to be displayed.
